

HOSTED BY THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION, UNIVERSITY OF EXETER

In association with the Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce (of which Anna was a Fellow) and the Real Ideas Organisation, a South West-based creative, educational and cultural Community Interest Company.

Anna Craft and beyond: what next for creativity?

We would like to invite Anna's colleagues, family and friends, as well as those interested in debating 'what next for creativity?' to celebrate Anna's life and extraordinary achievements. Through a series of interactive workshops and debates, we'll develop new ideas to consider this important question that Anna was so passionate about.

Date: Saturday 10 October 2015 Time: 10:00 – 16:00

Venue: Peter Chalk Centre, Streatham Campus, University of Exeter, EX4 4QQ

Opening the event is Penny Hay, Director of Research, 5x5x5=creativity and Senior Lecturer in Arts Education at Bath Spa University. Penny was a close colleague and friend of Anna's and will talk about Anna, her work and its future.

Following the workshops and debates, the day will culminate in the launch of Creativity, Education and Society: writings of Anna Craft, a selection of Anna's writing published by Trentham Books@IOEPress. Lunch and refreshments will be provided. To reserve a place, specifying any dietary requirements, please contact ssis-events@exeter.ac.uk with the email title 'Anna Craft Celebration event'. Further information regarding the content of the day will be available nearer the time.
